The LMDI-100 Serial Data Interface connects a Digital Lighting Management (DLM) local network to a third party system for coordinated control of devices including lighting controls, AV equipment, shade controls and user interfaces by either system.

Features & Benefits

RS-232 interface connects DLM local network to 3rd party control system

Plugs to free topology DLM local network allowing mounting in remote location

Hinged dust cover protects two RJ45 ports

Facilitates combining DLM with A/V and shade control systems

Provides access to local network data including occupancy status

Fits into standard single gang wallbox; optional DIN rail mounting

Specifications

General Info

| Product Line | Wattstopper | UPC Number | 754182934362 |
|---|---|---|---|
| Country Of Origin | United States | | |

Additional Information

| Security | Yes |
|---|---|